license the use of the domain registered to you to a third party (if permissible under the Registry Policies), you nonetheless remain the domain holder of record, and remain responsible for strict compliance with this Agreement, including but not limited to payment obligations, and providing (and updating, as necessary) accurate Registration Information and Additional Registration Information. You further represent that, to the best of your knowledge and belief, neither the registration of the domain nor the manner in which it is directly or indirectly used infringes the legal rights of a third party. You further represent and warrant that all information provided by you in connection with your domain registration is accurate and that you are not a proxy.

16. Indemnification

- 16.1. You will indemnify, hold harmless, and defend ICANN, the Registry, the Registrar, and all their subsidiaries and parent entities, predecessors, successors, affiliates, and assigns, and all of their respective current and former officers, directors, members, shareholders, agents, and employees (the "Indemnified Parties") from any and all Claims. "Claim" means any action, cause of action, suit, proceeding, claim, or demand of any third party (and all resulting judgments, bona fide settlements, penalties, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and costs)), which arises out of: (a) your breach of this Agreement or any of the Registry and or the Registrar's policies applicable to this domain registration or related services, (b) the registration or operation of your domain, (c) any negligent act or omission by you, or (d) any third party claim, action, or demand related to the registration or use of the domain registered in your name (and this indemnification is in addition to any indemnification required under other policies applicable to .REIT). "Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs" includes without limitation fees and costs incurred to interpret or enforce this section. The Registrar and the Registry may, at its expense, employ separate counsel to monitor and participate in the defence of any Claim. The Registrar will provide you with reasonably prompt notice of any Claim.
- 16.2. This indemnification obligation shall survive the termination or expiration of the registration agreement.
